

“U2 can paint a future bright”

Mandatory Curriculum Based Activities Training 2007-2008

This class is a mandatory three hour training for all newly Certified Professional Type-B providers in Franklin County. You are required to take this class one time only. You will receive our basic activity notebook containing 100 preschool activities, art supplies, children’s books for your personal library & a canvas tote bag with our logo. You will receive your training certificate for 3 hours at the training & your certificate for 1 additional hour after completing a brief follow up visit with our support specialist, Cheryl Miller. Our follow up visit is designed to answer any further questions you may have about our training materials & collect any feedback or suggestions you may have after attending our Phase 1 training.

Providing kids with the tools to succeed in school and life.
