

If you have been convicted of a crime, you still have the right to vote.

- If you have been convicted of a misdemeanor, you have the right to vote, even if you are incarcerated.
- If you have been arrested for a felony but have not been convicted, you still have the right to vote.
- If you have been convicted of a felony, you may not vote while incarcerated, but you may register to vote using your new address after you are released. You have the right to vote.
- If you live in a halfway house, are on parole, probation, house arrest or any other sort of correctional control, you have the right to vote.

LET ME
★ — ★ — ★
VOTE

For more information on voting rights, visit www.acluohio.org/vote

You are eligible to vote in Ohio:

- If you are a citizen of the United States;
- If you will be 18 on or before the day of the election in which you plan to vote;
- If you have been a resident of Ohio for at least 30 days immediately before the election for which you are registering;
- If you have not been declared incompetent to vote by a probate court;
- If you are not currently incarcerated for a felony in any state;
- If you have not permanently lost your voting rights due to violation of election laws, and;
- If you have registered to vote.