

CLASSROOM- G-191 ICS/EOC INTERFACE

Hosted by: Franklin County Emergency Management and Homeland Security

January 19, 2027

Course Description: The course provides an opportunity for emergency management and response personnel to begin developing an Incident Command System (ICS)/Emergency Operations Center (EOC) interface for their communities. The course reviews ICS and EOC characteristics, responsibilities and functions and depends heavily on activities and group discussions to formulate an interface.

Application Deadline:

Ten working days prior to the course
Seating availability is limited so register early

Course Registration time:

7:30 am – 8:00 am

Course Time:

8:00 am to 5:00 pm

Training Location:

Franklin County EM & HS
5300 Strawberry Farms Blvd.
Columbus, Ohio 43230

Recommended Participants: The intended audience(s) are federal, state, tribal, territorial, local level, private industry, volunteer and nongovernmental emergency management personnel who are active in a community's ICS and EOC activities. This course works best when delivered to combined audience of ICS and EOC personnel. The materials were developed with the assumption that audience members may have little or no actual experience as a member of an Incident Command Post staff or an EOC Staff.

Required Prerequisites: IS-100, Introduction to the Incident Command System; IS-200, Incident Command System for Single Resources and Initial Action Incidents; and/ or EOC Management courses; IS-700, An Introduction to the National Incident Management System; and IS-800, National Response Framework (NRF), An Introduction

Enrollment: Students must enroll via the Ohio Learn website: <https://ohid.ohio.gov/>. Course registration will close 10 working days prior to the course start date and applicants can check enrollment/approval status via the Ohio Learn website.

Course Costs: There is no charge for participants attending this course. However, Lodging, Meals, Per Diem and all other travel expenses are the responsibility of the student or the parent organization.
