

MyRecoveryWorks.com helps you support you

Join the online community to manage your wellness journey

MyRecoveryWorks.com was created to help you – support you. Your friends or family can even be a part of your team if you like.

We give you the tools to guide your own wellness journey.

Who can join?

Membership is open to adults living in Franklin County experiencing challenges with mental wellness or addictive behaviors seeking support for empowering your life’s journey.

There is a team of people just like you behind this website. Recovery Guides – staff members who have personal experiences with mental wellness or addictive behaviors – are available to assist and encourage you reach your goals.

Join now

Go to www.MyRecoveryWorks.com and register.

Questions?

Call 614-294-7117 and ask for a Recovery Guide or contact us by email from the site.

Realize your full potential

To help you support you, MyRecoveryWorks.com offers:

- A personal Recovery Guide to make the journey with you
- An online file cabinet so you can access your key personal documents anywhere you go
- An extensive calendar of recovery and educational events
- HOPE – Here’s Our Personal Experience, an online forum for members to share sources and encouragement
- Participate and Learn – Classes and tutorials on everything from computer use to job skills and wellness
- Access to the site for any support people you choose to follow your journey
- Resources for housing, medical services, and wellness

